TOLEDO, Ohio, June 25.—For the first time in the history of America the active heads of a criminal trust have been sent to jail on the specific charge of entering into a conspiracy for the restraint of trade and maintenance of exorbitant prices. Five ice dealers of this city, members of the combine, were sentenced to-day to one year in the workhouse, $5,000 fine and costs each.

The district prosecution created a great stir throughout Northern Ohio, when nearly every county prosecutor is engaged in a battle with some trust. It is the first case in the history of Ohio that the active leaders of a combine have been convicted under the anti-trust laws.

The result will be far-reaching, and means eight more than the conviction of Toledo's "five ice men." Indianapolis against the Bridge Trust are pending, as are also under case against the Standard Oil Company, the M. B. Trust, and C. C. and others. The defendants in other cases were so greatly shocked at the work. The men arrested to-day are Joseph
